Period two bedroom cottage in a great location

Situated just a short stroll from the High Street and mainland transport links, this two-bedroom mid-terrace cottage presents an excellent opportunity for buyers looking for a property to modernise and make their own, whether you are looking for a renovation project, an investment opportunity or a centrally located home to personalise. Along with two reception rooms and a courtyard garden this property has great potential and welcomes cash buyers.

Interior

Requiring renovation and updating throughout, the cottage offers a blank canvas for someone with vision to create a lovely home, with the potential to add both comfort and value over time. Retaining some traditional features, including fireplaces in both reception rooms, this is a property with scope to put your own stamp on.

Ground Floor:
The ground floor offers two separate reception rooms, both featuring fireplaces, with the dining room benefiting from a feature stove. Built-in cupboards beneath the staircase provide useful additional storage. To the rear is the kitchen, which leads directly out to the enclosed courtyard garden.

First Floor:
There are two double bedrooms, with the front bedroom enjoying glimpses of the famous Union Jack-emblazoned Wight Shipyard building, a familiar landmark within Cowes. The bathroom completes the first-floor accommodation and offers further scope for updating to suit individual tastes and requirements.

Exterior

To the rear is an enclosed courtyard garden, providing a useful outdoor space with a garden store. There is also an outside WC.

Cowes

This particular property is within minutes walk of the high street and the foot passenger route to Southampton with the floating bridge to East Cowes and the car ferry link, in the opposite direction. Useful for commuting to the mainland for work or pleasure.

Cowes is rich in nautical heritage and an international mecca for sailing, culminating in Cowes Week held in August each year. It has quick access to Southampton via the more modern Red Jet as well as many marinas and sailing clubs dotted along the waterfront.
Within the High Street there are two supermarkets, many boutique shops, pubs and eateries. Historical Northwood House & Park hosts weddings, fairs, concerts and conferences with outside space to enjoy walks. The chain ferry links Cowes to East Cowes where you can find the Red Funnel car and passenger ferry to the mainland.
