Plymouth

The waterfront city of Plymouth is set in one of the finest locations in the country, it stands right on the border between Devon and Cornwall overlooking the spectacular waters of Plymouth Sound to the south, while the remote beauty of Dartmoor National Park nudges its margins to the north.

Both Devon and Cornwall have long been cherished as holiday destinations with fabulous beaches, stunning unspoilt countryside, historic town and many more famous attractions such as the Eden Project.

Plymouth city centre has a pedestrianised shopping centre with its newly opened undercover shopping centre. It has a large modern multi-screen cinema complex and the well-known Theatre Royal which regularly plays host to The Birmingham Royal Ballet in addition to the musicals, plays, comedies and operas that are staged throughout the year.

In contrast, The Barbican offers a more cosmopolitan atmosphere being Plymouth city's oldest quarter. The area overlooks a pretty harbour and includes a variety of small independent shops, a number of wine bars, restaurants and cafes with open air seating.

Plymouth is easily accessed via the M5 motorway which joins the A38 at Junction 31. The city can also be reached via rail, via the National Express coach network and via airports located in Exeter (49 miles away).

City Centre

Plymouth City Centre has seen significant redevelopment in recent years, with the popular Drake Circus shopping centre offering more than 60 retail outlets and eateries. The recently developed coach station provides convenient access to destinations across the South West, while Plymouth railway station is just a short walk away, making the city centre an ideal base for commuters and those who enjoy exploring further afield.

Known as Britain's Ocean City, Plymouth boasts a fantastic blend of urban living, maritime heritage and coastal charm. The historic Barbican is a popular destination, with its picturesque waterfront, independent galleries, traditional pubs, stylish bars and an excellent choice of restaurants.

Meanwhile, Royal William Yard offers a unique setting for dining, socialising and leisure, with its impressive historic architecture, waterside cafés and regular events.

For those who enjoy city living with the sea close at hand, Plymouth City Centre offers an exciting lifestyle, combining shopping, entertainment, excellent transport links and easy access to the waterfront. With continued investment and regeneration, it is an increasingly attractive place to live, work and enjoy everything the city has to offer.
