A beautifully presented two-bedroom ground floor apartment, recently redecorated throughout and offering bright, comfortable accommodation. The generous lounge is a real highlight, with high ceilings and large windows that flood the room with natural light, complemented by a gas fireplace as a cosy focal point. The kitchen is fitted with a good range of wall and base units and comes equipped with an integrated electric hob and electric oven, and washing machine. There are two bedrooms, one benefiting from fitted storage, along with a well-appointed bathroom. Outside, residents enjoy access to attractive communal garden grounds with duck pond, and the property comes with an allocated parking space. There is double glazing and gas central heating throughout. Overall, this property is an ideal purchase for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors alike.
