Home or investment opportunity For Sale with lots of potential! The fact that this can be sold with or without tenants in situ gives the buyer flexibility, which is always a plus. The three bedrooms, separate reception room & extensive kitchen offer plenty of living space. The conservatory with views and access to the rear garden is a nice touch, and the generously sized rear garden is sure to be a hit with anyone who loves spending time outdoors. There is potential for a driveway, but it's important to note that this would need to be approved by the local planning authority (STPP - subject to planning permission).
