For Sale via Camerons Stiff & Co. this elegant Victorian Home with a south facing garden, set behind an attractive period façade, the house spans in excess of 2000 sq ft with soaring ceiling heights and generous room sizes throughout.

Positioned on this sought after residential street, moments from Queens Park, this handsome three story Victorian terraced home, offers expansive proportions, timeless charm and scope to further extend and evolve.

The heart of the home is a beautifully open plan kitchen, dining and living area designed for modern family life and everyday ease. To the rear a separate reception room with bifold doors opening onto a garden creating a truly seamless indoor outdoor connection that comes into its own during the warmer months.

The south facing garden stretches approximately 48 ft offering a private and sun-filled space ideal for entertaining relaxing or simply enjoying a quiet moment. Upstairs six well proportioned bedrooms are arranged across two floors along with bathrooms on each level.

A substantial basement of nearly 500 sq ft sits beneath the property providing ample storage or the opportunity for conversion, subject to necessary permissions. The house also holds clear potential for a rear and a full lower Ground Floor extension as others in the area have undertaken making it a compelling prospect for buyers looking into future proof of their investment.
