

Furzehill Road

Borehamwood, WD6 2DN

Carrington are pleased to offer to the market this wonderful, extended, 1930's three bedroom semi detached home situated along one of Borehamwood's most sought after roads, within a short walk to the high street and mainline train station in addition to being in the catchment for some of the best schools the town has to offer. The property comprises of three large reception rooms with all the charm and features you would expect from a property of it's age, a kitchen breakfast room, utility room, guest cloak room and integral garage. To the first floor are three ample bedrooms and a bathroom with a separate w/c. The rear garden extends to around 80ft and is mainly laid to lawn with fence and hedge surround offering great privacy. The pretty front garden is well tended and offers off street parking for two cars. The home offers fantastic potential for extensions like many of the neighboring houses (STRC) and is offered to the market with no upper chain.
