- Flexible Layout Providing up to 3 Bedrooms
- Deceptively Spacious & Versatile Accommodation
- Two En-Suite Double Bedrooms
- Convenient Access to Southwell
- Popular Village of Fiskerton
- No Upward Chain
- Open-Plan Living Space with Kitchen to the Rear
- Feature Galleried Lounge, Reception Room/Third Bedroom
- Viewing Highly Recommended

A truly unique barn conversion nestled in the heart of the sought-after village of Fiskerton, which benefits from a welcoming village pub, local shop, and excellent access to the historic market town of Southwell.

Offered to the market with the advantage of no upward chain, the property boasts deceptively spacious and highly versatile accommodation arranged over two floors, with the flexibility to provide up to three bedrooms.

The ground floor features an impressive open-plan living space with the kitchen positioned to the rear, an en-suite double bedroom, and a further reception room or optional bedroom, complemented by a useful store/utility room beyond.

To the first floor, a striking galleried lounge creates a superb additional living area, alongside a further generously proportioned en-suite double bedroom.

An internal viewing is highly recommended to fully appreciate the character, unique layout, and desirable village setting of this individual home.
