- Detached Barn Conversion (2,320 Sq Ft)
- 4 Bedrooms & 4 Bath/Shower Rooms
- Large Open Plan Living/Dining/Kitchen
- PP for Three-Bay Barn/Garage (11.4m x 6.6m)
- Surrounded by Open Countryside
- Spacious Family Living Accommodation
- 40ft Open Plan Reception Room
- Substantial Landscaped Plot (0.55 Acres)
- Vehicular Access to the Front & Rear
- Idyllic Semi-Rural Location

An exceptionally spacious four bedroom detached family barn conversion occupying a level and landscaped plot extending to circa 0.55 of an acre, situated in an idyllic, semi-rural location surrounded by open countryside with wonderful views. The property once formed part of the Duke of Devonshire's Chatsworth estate.

The Old Dairy was converted in 2016 and is one of only three, individual detached dwellings in a most delightful courtyard setting. The property is L-shaped in configuration and constructed from stone and brick elevations beneath a slate and pantile roof.

The living accommodation spans over two floors providing in the region of 2,320 sq ft with vaulted ceilings and stunning original King post trusses and beams. On the ground floor, there is a substantial T-shaped reception hallway, utility, bathroom, bedroom three with an en suite, office/bedroom four, a large, triple aspect, open plan living/dining/kitchen and a 40ft open plan reception room with log burner. Upstairs, there are two large double bedrooms each with vaulted ceilings, an en suite and a Juliet balcony affording the best of the countryside views to the rear. The property has oil fired central heating and hardwood double glazed windows.

Overall, this is a rare opportunity to acquire a unique and individual family home and viewing is highly recommended.

OUTSIDE

The Old Dairy occupies a superb location on Batley Lane surrounded by flat open countryside with wonderful open views to the front, side and rear. The property is approached by remote controlled electric farm gates leading onto a substantial, circular courtyard gravel driveway. There are extensive raised beds to the front with slate chippings, plants and shrubs. There is a large, raised central lawn with pond and waterfall and a private septic tank. In the corner of the courtyard is a flagstone seating area where the doors open from the kitchen and open plan reception room. The driveway continues to the side of the property leading round to the rear where there is turning space and further hardstanding car parking for three vehicles. There are further gravel areas and a substantial L-shaped lawn with ample laurel bushes on both sides, silver birch trees and post and rail boundaries bordering to adjacent countryside. There is also a secluded spot that is perfect for alfresco dining and outdoor entertaining with a large seating area beneath a pergola surrounded by a laurel hedges overlooking open countryside. The property has the benefit of additional vehicular access to the rear down the shared driveway between the property and the other two properties which leads to double gates opening to the aforementioned driveway to the rear of the property which gives access round to the front. The property also comes with the benefit of planning permission for a detached three-bay barn/garage (11.4m x 6.6m), approved by Bolsover council on 11 June 2025 under planning reference number 25/00084/FUL.

LOCATION

The Old Dairy is situated halfway between Teversal and Pleasley and yet still being conveniently located within easy reach of Hardwick Hall, the Teversal Trails and Silverhill (one of the highest points in Nottinghamshire) which all offer some beautiful walks. There are an excellent range of amenities nearby including the highly regarded The Carnarvon pub/restaurant, excellent links to the M1 and Chesterfield train station which offers a well serviced route reaching London in under two hours. The delightful village of Teversal also comes stacked with a well established history including links to D.H Lawrence and the 5th Earl of Carnarvon, who was the financial backer in the excavation of Tutankhamen's tomb which is celebrated with a feature mosaic on entry to the village itself.
