An excellent opportunity to purchase a substantial detached contemporary home, originally completed by David Wilson Homes in the early 2000s to their Netherseal design, which offers an excellent level of internal accommodation approaching 2,560 sq.ft. and having been extended to the rear with a sympathetic pitched roof addition to the kitchen, creating a fantastic open plan living/entertaining space with part vaulted ceiling and access out into the garden.

The property boasts five double bedrooms, two of which offer ensuite facilities, all rooms having fitted wardrobes, and a separate family bathroom. To the ground floor is an excellent level of accommodation boasting four generous receptions, the sitting room offering an attractive inglenook fireplace with solid fuel stove and access out into the rear garden. The main receptions are enhanced by a spacious open plan living/dining kitchen which would undoubtedly become the hub of the home, tastefully appointed with contemporary fixtures and fittings and integrated appliances, having a useful utility off. In addition, leading off the central hallway with feature staircase rising to a galleried landing above, is a ground floor cloak room which has also been updated with contemporary fixtures and fittings, the property also benefitting from neutral decoration throughout, UPVC double glazing and gas central heating.

As well as the accommodation on offer the property occupies a pleasant plot, generous by modern standards, with a good level of off road parking which in turn leads to a detached double garage with electric car charger. A well maintained rear garden benefits from a southwesterly aspect with a large terrace, central lawn and established borders.

Overall this is a well thought out and generously proportioned family home within this popular location, all within walking distance of the heart of the village with its wealth of amenities.
