We have pleasure in offering to the market this well thought out, family orientated, contemporary new build home, tucked away off a private driveway, shared with a handful of other individual dwellings and forming one of only four new high specification homes. All positioned close to the heart of this highly regarded and well served village.

Plot 3 is located at the foot of the close, offering a fantastic level of accommodation approaching 2,700sqft including an integral garage (accommodation 2,421 sqft). Beautifully appointed throughout, having contemporary fixtures and fittings including engineered oak internal doors, deep skirtings and architraves, UPVC double glazed windows, neutral decoration, recessed downlighting to many of the rooms and beautifully appointed kitchens and bathrooms. In addition there is gas central heating and underfloor heating to the ground floor, with beautiful "woodpecker" engineered oak flooring flowing through the whole ground floor. With the bathrooms finished with Italian porcelain tiling, all combining to create a well thought out and high quality finish.

With Plots 1, 2, (available soon) and 3 boasting five double bedrooms with built in wardrobes, two bedrooms benefiting from ensuite facilities, and separate spacious family bathroom. The kitchens are tastefully appointed and all provide large, open plan spaces with both living and dining areas, the kitchens being well appointed with a generous range of units finished in heritage colours having Bosch integrated appliances, quartz preparation surfaces and complementing central island units.

The properties offer a wonderful spacious feel with large entrance hall and galleried landings, boasting three reception rooms as well as the large open plan living kitchens, making them perfect for families, especially those locating into the village and making use of the local schools.

The property offers a pleasant out door space, set back behind an open plan lawned frontage, which leads up to the attractive central entrance, with oak framed porch. In addition there is a double width driveway and generous integral garage.

The properties will benefit from a 10 year warranty.

Overall viewing is the only way to truly appreciate both the location and accommodation on offer.
