A well-maintained and nicely presented three bedroom semi-detached family home, originally built in 1964 as a police house, conveniently located close to Newark Town Centre and offering generous accommodation with excellent scope for further enhancement.

The accommodation comprises an entrance hall, a comfortable lounge which opens through to the dining area creating a pleasant open-plan layout, together with a spacious kitchen fitted with a range of units. A particular feature of the property is the large utility room, which offers excellent versatility and could lend itself well to conversion into a family room, garden room or an extended dining kitchen, subject to any necessary consents.

To the first floor there are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a shower room. The property further benefits from uPVC double glazed windows and gas fired central heating.

Outside, the property enjoys a driveway providing ample off-road parking for several vehicles, together with turning space and a single garage. To the rear is a secluded and well-enclosed garden with a lawn and patio terrace, creating a safe and secure outdoor space ideal for children and pets.

An ideal family home in a convenient location, offering space, practicality and future potential. Viewing is highly recommended.

Newark is a thriving and historic market town offering an excellent blend of character, convenience and connectivity. The town is centred around its attractive Georgian Market Square, which hosts regular markets and events and is surrounded by a wide variety of independent retailers, high street names and essential amenities.

For day-to-day shopping, Newark provides a strong selection of supermarkets including M&S Food Hall, Asda, Morrisons, Waitrose and Aldi. The town also offers a great range of cafes, bars and restaurants, from popular independents to well-known names such as Starbucks and Costa. Newark has also recently welcomed a Waterstones bookshop, complementing the town's already good selection of independent and charity bookshops around the town centre.

Newark is particularly well placed for commuters, with excellent road links to the A1 and A46, providing easy access to Nottingham, Lincoln and beyond. Newark Northgate Railway Station offers fast rail services to London King's Cross in approximately 75 minutes, making it a popular choice for those requiring regular access to the capital.

The town is well served by a range of primary and secondary schools, along with healthcare facilities including Newark Hospital, making Newark an ideal location for families, professionals and those looking to enjoy the benefits of a well-connected market town.

The property dates from 1964 and was originally a Police house. Constructed of brick under a tile roof covering. There is a brick built rear extension with flat roof.
