A detached four bedroomed house with open plan living space. A self contained one bedroomed annexe, large garage and workshop facilities, standing on a good size plot within the very attractive village of Normanton on Trent. Local amenities include a primary school and school bus services to Tuxford Academy. The village is situated approximately 11 miles north of Newark, approached by country lanes and indeed a pleasant area to live.

The accommodation provides on the ground floor, lounge, open plan kitchen dining area and living area, rear porch, inner hall and a self contained annexe providing sitting room, kitchen, bedroom and wet room. The spacious first floor accommodation provides four double sized bedrooms, master en suite and family bathroom.

The property has a walled entrance with iron gates, paved driveway and ample turning space. A substantial larger than average detached garage with adjoining workshop and a separate garden shed.

The property substantially built circa 1973 with later extensions, provides spacious and well planned family living accommodation. Windows are double glazed (most wood framed sealed unit double glazing units) and the property has solid fuel central heating with panelled radiators.

The village of Normanton on Trent is approached by country lanes from Sutton on Trent, Grassthorpe, Weston and Tuxford. There is access to the north to the A57 and A1 trunk road junction providing accessibility to the north and Lincoln. Newark is approximately 11 miles south and Tuxford within 4 miles. The Castlegate and Northgate Railway Stations located in Newark provide rail services to London, Leeds, Edinburgh, Lincoln and Nottingham. Journey times to London King's Cross are just over 75 minutes.

Village amenities include a primary school, and two public houses. There are school bus services to Tuxford Academy and regular public bus services also. The nearby village of Sutton on Trent provides a co-operative, doctors surgery, hairdressers and local amenities. The small market town of Tuxford provides also a wide range of amenities and services.
