Sunny Row is a stone fronted cottage with outbuildings which requires complete renovation. Situated in Holcot village, the property fronts onto Sywell Road. There is a driveway to the rear approached from Back Lane and this offers plot potential (subject to planning permission.)

The cottage includes a sitting room, kitchen/dining room and lean-to/conservatory to the ground floor. To the first floor are three bedrooms and a bathroom/WC. There are outbuildings which also need renovating which include a garage, closed stable, open stable, store with stable door, shed and two cupboards. The rear garden is a good size - part of which is a driveway which leads up to Back Lane. This unusual and unique cottage offers fantastic potential for renovating to live in or as a development opportunity. (D/1040/L)
