A beautifully presented detached house, constructed by Messrs Bryant Homes in 1997, on the sought after Ashway development within the thriving village of Brixworth. The property is located in a quiet cul-de-sac position and enjoys views over Pitsford reservoir. Many improvements have been carried out over recent years to include replacement uPVC double glazing, fascias and soffits, re-fitted Wren kitchen, modern en-suite shower room, white timber slat shutters throughout, re-decoration and re-carpeted throughout.

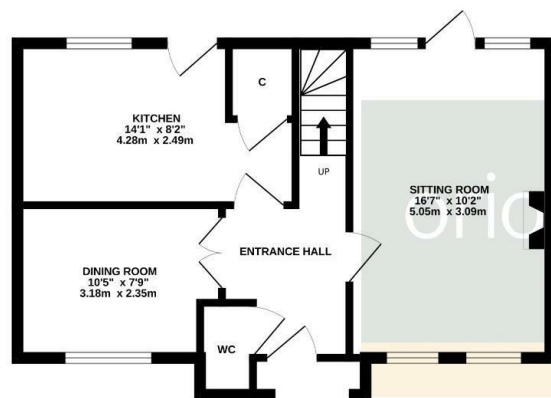

The accommodation comprises entrance hall, cloakroom/WC, sitting room with dual aspect, formal dining room, kitchen with integrated oven, hob, dishwasher and fridge/freezer, first floor landing, master bedroom with dual aspect, dressing area with fitted wardrobes and en-suite shower room, two further well proportioned bedrooms with fitted wardrobes and a family bathroom with shower over the bath. Outside is a low maintenance open plan front garden with drive to side providing off road parking for two/three cars giving access to a single garage with light and power. The private rear garden is fully enclosed and mainly laid to lawn with decking area to the rear of the house and a relatively new timber shed located to the rear of the garage. (A/936/M)
