Ground Floor

The part glazed front door opens into the dual aspect reception room flooded with natural light, highlighting the crisp neutral decor which continues through this lovely home. The stylish and newly fitted kitchen offers a range of white fronted wall and base units with contrasting granite effect work surfaces. A single oven with four burner electric hob and filter hood over are included with plumbing for a washing machine and space for a free standing fridge freezer. The under stairs cupboard has been utilised as a pantry with bespoke shelving fitted.

First Floor

The first floor landing serves the generous double bedroom which enjoys a dual aspect and ample space for freestanding storage. A cupboard over the stairs houses the immersion tank with a hatch providing access to the part board loft space via a pull down ladder. The stylish and fully tiled family bathroom comprises a panelled bath with dual head shower over, wash basin, wc, electric mirror and heated towel rail.

Parking

One allocated parking space is available with additional parking for visitors.

Outside

The garden has been thoughtfully landscaped to create a private and social outdoor space, perfect for entertaining or relaxing with quality paving extending to a seating area, bordered by mature hedgerows. A secure storage shed is situated on a hardstanding with additional storage available in a shelved cupboard next to the front door.

Location

Ashurst Bridge is a sought-after semi-rural area located on the edge of Totton, ideally positioned between the thriving town centre and the natural beauty of the New Forest National Park. Popular with families, commuters, and those looking for a quieter pace of life, the area offers an appealing balance of convenience and countryside. The nearby villages of Ashurst and Totton provide a good range of everyday amenities, including supermarkets, cafés, pubs, and local shops, while Southampton's extensive retail, leisure, and dining options are just a short drive away. Excellent road connections via the A35 and M27 make Ashurst Bridge an attractive base for commuters, with easy access to Southampton, Bournemouth, and beyond. Rail links from Ashurst New Forest and Totton stations offer direct services towards Southampton, London, and the south coast. For outdoor enthusiasts, Ashurst Bridge sits moments from miles of woodland walks, cycling routes, and open forest. Well-regarded local schools and community facilities further enhance the appeal of the area.

Management Charge

A management company maintains the bordering hedgerows with a half yearly charge of £300
