Ground Floor

The front door opens directly into a well-proportioned kitchen, featuring a range of storage units, space for a cooker and under-counter fridge, and stairs rising to the first-floor landing. A door leads through to the spacious sitting/dining room, where a charming brick-surround fireplace serves as a focal point, creating a welcoming space for relaxation or entertaining. To the rear, a utility area provides additional storage and access to the garden via a single door, as well as a convenient downstairs WC. Character features are found throughout, adding warmth and individuality to the home.

First Floor

The first floor offers a generously sized double bedroom, filled with natural light from dual windows that provide charming views over the garden. A feature fireplace adds character to the space, making it a warm and inviting retreat. The second bedroom is a cosy single with views of Romsey Abbey, ideal as a guest room, nursery, or study and offers direct access to the bathroom, which is fitted with a bath and wash basin.

Outside

The rear garden offers a private and enclosed outdoor space, bordered on one side by a charming brick wall and on the other by timber fencing. Mature trees and an abundance of wild shrubbery create a natural, tranquil setting with a sense of seclusion. A pathway leads to a characterful summerhouse, perfect for use as a garden retreat, studio, or additional storage.
