Situated in a popular setting, this improved and attractive period terraced home offers an enviable lifestyle within easy reach of scenic river walks and the vibrant town centre. Blending charming original features with thoughtful modern upgrades, the property provides a warm and inviting atmosphere ideal for first-time buyers, downsizers, or investors alike. The surrounding area is well regarded for its convenience, community feel and access to local amenities, making everyday living both practical and enjoyable. With its attractive façade, long rear garden with scope for further enhancement, this home presents a fantastic opportunity to enjoy character living in a prime location, while still offering exciting potential to personalise and add value over time.

Internally, the property is well presented throughout, beginning with an entrance hall leading into a bright living room featuring a walk-in bay window that fills the space with natural light. A spacious separate dining room provides excellent entertaining space and gives access to a useful, recently painted cellar. The kitchen is modern and functional, with freestanding units offering flexibility. Additional benefits include gas central heating, refurbished windows, and a relatively new boiler and front door.

To the first floor, there are two excellent bedrooms, including a generous principal bedroom spanning the full width of the house, while the second bedroom benefits from a built-in wardrobe. The bathroom has been stylishly refitted with a contemporary white suite, complete with a rain head shower and screen. Further potential exists with loft conversion possibilities and a partially retained second staircase.

Externally, the property enjoys a forecourt frontage and a particularly long rear garden, offering fantastic outdoor space and scope for further landscaping or extension (subject to necessary consents). An outbuilding and outside WC add practicality, with potential to incorporate into the main house if desired.
