A well-presented two-bedroom terraced home located in the heart of the popular village of Bayston Hill, close to local amenities and with excellent road links. Recent improvements include a newly installed boiler, new flooring throughout the ground floor and stairs and fresh decoration, giving the home a light and welcoming feel. Offered with no upward chain, this property presents an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a straightforward purchase. Its central position means local shops, schools and public transport are easily accessible, and the lack of upward chain supports a prompt, less stressful sale. Early viewing is recommended.

The property is entered via a front door opening into a welcoming living room, full of character with exposed beams, alcoves to either side of the fireplace, and a staircase rising to the first floor. The fireplace is a feature point within the room, designed to resemble a log burner; however, it is an old, disconnected gas fire and must not be used as a working log burner. The room has a comfortable and homely feel, ideal for relaxing or entertaining.

A door leads through to the breakfast kitchen, which is fitted with a range of modern wall and base units providing ample storage and worktop space. There is an integrated oven with cooker hood above, and the gas-fired central heating boiler is also located here. The beamed ceiling adds charm, while a window and rear door allow plenty of natural light and give access to the rear courtyard.

Upstairs, there are two bedrooms and a bathroom, offering practical and comfortable living accommodation.

Outside, to the rear of the property, is a low-maintenance courtyard garden laid with astro turf and enclosed by fencing, providing a pleasant, private outdoor space. A driveway, situated at the end of the terrace, offers off-road parking for two cars, completing this attractive home.
