Flat 4, Grove Court provides a rare opportunity to acquire a centrally located, purpose-built flat within a popular residential area in the heart of Wem. The property is available with vacant possession, allowing buyers to let or occupy the flat immediately without delay or chain complications.

The apartment occupies a central position, within walking distance of Wem's array of everyday facilities: including shops, doctors, banks, eateries and leisure services. Of particular note is Wem's railway station, just a short walk from Grove Court, which provides direct access to regional hubs such as Shrewsbury and Crewe, enhancing the appeal to both investors and potential tenants.

This flat would make a sensible and sustainable addition to a buy-to-let portfolio, particularly in light of ongoing demand for well-located, low-maintenance units in commuter-accessible locations. Alternatively, it offers a manageable and secure option for those looking to downsize or acquire a foothold in a thriving market town.

Agents note:

The owners of the flats are in the process of forming a management company to deal with the external / communal areas of the building.
