The property blends modern creature comforts with character features of the period, two woodburning stoves and good sized and delightful gardens. Ludlow's historic town centre is a short walk and Ludlow Castle, St Lawrence's Church and hillside views can be enjoyed to the rear.

Location

A five minute walk will take you into Ludlow's historic town centre with its excellent range of facilities and a mainline railway station being only a 2 minutes walk

Accommodation

A feature of this home is the lovely high ceilings and well proportioned rooms to include an entrance porch with stained glass door and window into an impressive entrance hall with doored staircase to a three roomed cellar.

Two grand reception rooms are on the ground floor. The living room sits to the frontage with a large bay window, exposed floorboards and a beautiful fireplace with woodburning stove. The sitting room has a window to the rear with a fine view to the surrounding hills, again with a feature fireplace, woodburning stove and period cupboards.

Sitting at the rear of the property is a spacious kitchen/breakfast room with feature Aga range and an AGA cooker for use in the summer months, ample room for table and chairs, excellent range of handmade base cupboards, wood block works surfaces and an opening through into a utility area and cloakroom with WC.

A period staircase rises to the first floor landing with four bedrooms on this floor including two large doubles both having attractive fireplaces and both having fitted wardrobes, bedroom 3 has a large window to the rear with view of St Lawrence's church, Ludlow Castle and surrounding hills. There is a further small single bedroom 4 and a luxurious re-fitted bathroom incorporating freestanding bath, shower cubicle, wash hand basin and WC, all in white.

The second floor landing gives access to 2 further double bedrooms both with cast-iron fireplaces, the rear room having phenomenal far reaching views. Bathroom 2 with modern fitment of WC, wash handbasin with vanity cupboard, panelled bath and separate shower cubicle.

Outside

The property is approached via brick pillars and wrought iron gateway across a bricked pathway leading to the front door. The front garden is enclosed with wrought iron railings to the front elevation.

To the rear and directly nearest the house there is a small yard and useful outside store. This in turn leads to the largest section of garden, which is enclosed by hedging and fencing aiding privacy. The garden enjoys views across the rooftops and is mature with a selection of trees, plants, shrubs and a useful garden shed.

Agents Note

As is common with older terraced houses there is a right of access across the rear of the terrace. However, there is no public right of way.
