A Characterful Two-Bedroom
Apartment in a Prime Central Location

Set on the top floor of an attractive period building, this charming two-bedroom apartment effortlessly combines classic character with practical living. Positioned just moments from the town centre and mainline station, the property offers an enviable blend of convenience and style.

From the entrance, a stairwell leads you to the apartment where a generously proportioned open plan living room and kitchen awaits, flooded with natural light and anchored by an elegant feature fireplace, it makes for an ideal setting to unwind or entertain.

Both bedrooms are well-sized doubles, offering flexibility for occupants, guests or a home office setup. You'll find a tastefully finished bathroom with a shower.

The apartment retains a wealth of period charm throughout and it represents a rare opportunity to enjoy town-centre living without compromising on character.

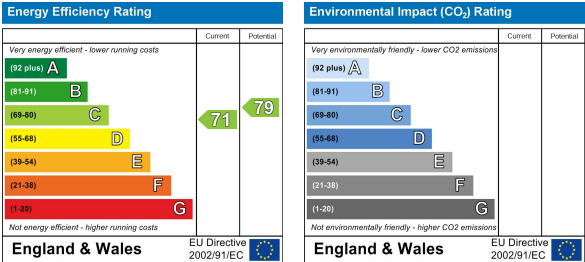

Resident permit parking available via application to the local authority.
