This superb apartment is located in one of the premium locations of Regency Cheltenham, a mere stone's throw from the Montpellier and Imperial Gardens.

Full Description

We enter the building via a secure entrance into smart communal, which provide access to this charming neo-regency home.

The spacious reception room is bathed in light thanks to the large sash windows, and with ample space for living and dining, this lovely reception may be easily modified to suit your living requirements. There are period style features such as statement pillars in the living room, a tasteful archway into the kitchen, and a striking curved window providing a real wow factor, alongside the large sash windows which look out onto Montpellier Spa Road, with views across to the park. Montpellier Park plays host to Cheltenham's famous festivals and events, and this vista is also a super spot for people watching.

The kitchen leads from the reception room, allowing a social flow. This is a lovely kitchen, with built in appliances and with space for a couple chefs to mill around!

Two bedrooms, one an ample double and one a smaller double complete the living space. The principal bedroom has built in wardrobe storage, and those wonderfully large floor to ceiling windows offer a private outlook. The bathroom has been enlarged compared to the similar apartments in the building, providing a spacious retreat to enjoy, also with shower, and is in very good order.

Externally the property benefits from secure underground parking, there is also the option for additional permit parking should you wish.

Viewing is highly recommended for this super apartment.
