

8.92 acres of Land & Stables at Crow Hill Argae Lane

Dinas Powys CF63 1BL

Asking Price £315,000

HARRIS & BIRT

Approximately 8.92 acres of agricultural land together with purpose built stabling, tack room, and ménage. The land is gently sloping and anticipated to be of interest to equine, investors and amenity purchasers.

Location

The land is located along Argae Lane, a semi-rural area on the outskirts of Dinas Powys. The land lie approximately 6 miles south west of Cardiff and 6 miles south of Culverhouse Cross. The town of Barry lies approximately 3 miles to the west.

Description

The total area is approximately 8.92 acres and is an attractive block of long-term pastureland with purpose built stabling and ménage. There are 6 looseboxes in total together with tack room which opens out onto a hardcore yard area which is useful for tacking / mounting. The land is separated into paddocks via post and rail. There are two additional shed units and a small orchard with 2 apple trees, 2 pear trees and 2 plum trees.

From measurements taken onsite, we have calculated the following approximate floor areas in relation to the stable block and attached barn:-

L shaped stable block & tack room :- 124.47 sqm

Attached Barn :- 28.61 sqm

Shed/Outbuilding: Unmeasured

Services

The land benefits from mains water. We have not tested any of these service installations and prospective occupiers are advised to satisfy themselves independently as to the state and condition of such items prior to the transaction completing.

Planning

Whilst the land is agricultural/equestrian in terms of its current use, it was included in early drafts of the Vale of Glamorgan Local Development Plan as part of a potential residential development scheme. Consequently, the land may well have medium to long term development potential.

Land Classification
