

16 & 16a John Street

Porthcawl CF36 3BA

Price £325,000

HARRIS & BIRT

Opportunity to acquire a mid terrace income producing investment with ground floor shop and a self contained two bed maisonette flat above. Total income £23,700 per annum reflecting a Gross Initial Yield (GIY) of 7.3%.

Location

Porthcawl is a vibrant town in the Bridgend County Borough located on the south coast circa 25 miles west of Cardiff and circa 19 miles south east of Swansea. From Junction 37 (Pyle) of the M4 Motorway Porthcawl is a short drive on the A4229. Alternatively, it is accessible from Junction 35 (Pencoed) via the A473.

The property itself is located on John Street within Porthcawl Town Centre on the main retail pitch and within close proximity to the sea front and Promenade. Porthcawl is popular with holiday makers and day trippers alike and offers local amenities, good transport links and continued regeneration plans.

Description

The property comprises a mid terrace mixed use part income producing investment with ground floor retail and a self contained first / second floor two bedroom maisonette flat above which extends into the attic.

The ground floor is currently let and provides an additional seating area and WC facilities for the adjacent Cafe. The first floor / second floor provides a large two double bedroom maisonette flat which is well presented and accessed via the front corridor adjacent to the shop. The flat comprises a kitchen, lounge, dining room, two double bedrooms and a bathroom. There is potential to add a further single bedroom subject to obtaining the necessary planning consents. Furthermore there is a basement which provides additional storage.
