

Great House

Treos, CF35 5DH

Offers Over £800,000

HARRIS & BIRT

An imposing period home reflecting its essential character by balancing period features with modern appointments. This is a substantial house with four large living rooms, sizeable kitchen/breakfast room, cloakroom and utility room on the ground floor and an impressive vaulted ceiling master bedroom with dressing room and en suite, a further five double bedrooms and three bathrooms on the first floor together with two staircases. The property enjoys the advantage of full mains gas fired central heating and is double glazed in keeping with the character of the house. Mature gardens are bounded by a stone wall and include south facing lawned garden, rose garden with box hedging and tucked away flagstone courtyard. There is plenty of parking in the driveway and a detached garage.

The property is located in the heart of the village of Treoes in the Vale of Glamorgan and within an excellent school catchment for Cowbridge Comprehensive School and Llangan Primary School. Treoes offers all the benefits of village life on your doorstep. Within short walking distance of village facilities, including an active village hall, village green/playing field, the well regarded Star Inn and the recently renovated Saron Chapel (1831) funded by local residents. Easy access to the A48 and M4 (Junction 35) brings major centres within easy commuting distance, including the capital city of Cardiff, Bridgend, Llantrisant, Swansea etc. The fashionable market town of Cowbridge, with its range of local shopping and facilities, is less than 5 miles away.
