HARRIS & BIRT

A spacious, five-bedroom, semi-detached, townhouse offering versatile and well-proportioned accommodation, with a useful extension to the rear and excellent outside space. The ground floor comprises an entrance porch, kitchen/dining room, living room and a further extended reception room to the rear, providing an ideal additional space for family living or entertaining. To the first floor are two generous double bedrooms, with the third bedroom currently utilised as a study, together with a family bathroom. To the second floor a further two double bedrooms and an additional en-suite. Externally, the property benefits from a small front garden, ample parking to the side and a single garage. To the rear is an enclosed garden, complemented by a summer house with electricity, offering an excellent versatile space that would be ideal for use as a home gym, office or study.

Coity itself is a small village within the Bridgend county with a post office, church and family run pub and is home to one of the most infamous castles in Welsh history. Major road networks including the A48 and M4 corridor are close at hand and there is just a short drive to both Bridgend and the market town of Cowbridge and all they have to offer including shops, restaurants and public transport links.
