HARRIS & BIRT

An excellent opportunity to purchase this eight bedroom, detached residence, built in 1939 as the RAF Officers and situated on the edge of open countryside. Set in circa 1.1 acres of mature gardens and with views stretching across the green to front, the property offers nearly 4000 sq/ft of accommodation. The property, found in excellent decorative condition, briefly comprises; entrance porch, WC, entrance hall, living room, dining room, study/sitting room, kitchen/breakfast room, utility, WC 2, rear hall and boiler room to the ground floor with stairs up to first floor, four excellent sized bedrooms with attached bedroom eight to master bedroom and two bathrooms, stairs lead up to a second floor with a further three bedrooms and third bathroom. The accommodation really is fantastic. Newly fitted UPVC windows throughout by the current vendors recently, with inset remote controlled blinds.

The grounds are flat, level and mature - mainly laid to lawn with parcels of patio and raised decking. Peaceful and secluded to all boundaries with mature trees and secure fencing surrounding, set back from the road via a parcel of lawn and off road parking for numerous vehicles, integrated garage to side.

St Athan is within easy walking distance of the villages excellent facilities. These include well regarded junior school dating from about 1860, range of shops including the recently opened Co-op, library, chemist, village stores, The Three Horseshoes pub, Grade I listed church of St Athan and St Athan Golf Club. Recently opened nearby is the new facility for Aston Martin. More extensive market town facilities are available at Cowbridge just a few miles to the north while access to the main coast road provides easy commuting to major centres including the capital city of Cardiff. Local transport also includes the recently reopened coastal railway line between Cardiff and Bridgend. Cardiff (Wales) Airport is within easy driving distance.
