£410,000

Nestled in the charming coastal village of Seaview, this beautifully extended and remodelled detached bungalow offers a perfect blend of comfort and convenience. Built in the 1970's, the property boasts a prime location, with stunning beaches along the nearby coastline and picturesque countryside to the southerly outskirts of the village.

As you enter, you will gravitate towards the generous lounge/diner that overlooks the well-maintained lawned garden. This inviting space seamlessly connects to the outdoors, allowing you to enjoy delightful views of the sea while entertaining or relaxing.

The bungalow features three well-proportioned double bedrooms, ensuring ample space for family or guests. The principal bedroom is particularly appealing, complete with an en suite shower room for added privacy and convenience.

The kitchen/breakfast room is equipped with an extensive range of units, making it a practical and enjoyable space for culinary pursuits. Additionally, a handy study or home office provides the perfect environment for remote work or study, catering to modern living needs.

With parking available for up to three vehicles, this property is not only functional but also ideally situated within walking distance of local amenities, including the nearby shop and bus route. The local beaches at Seagrove Bay are just a 10 minute walk away, offering a wonderful opportunity for seaside leisure.

This delightful bungalow is a rare find in a sought-after location, making it an ideal choice for those seeking a tranquil coastal lifestyle.
