131a Great Preston Road, Ryde, Isle Of Wight, PO33 1DB

£255,000

Built in 2005, this smart modern home has a well presented interior ready for even the most discerning of buyers to take up occupation. It occupies an elevated position and as such enjoys a pleasant outlook across the countryside beyond its residential position. This Elmfield suburb of Ryde location is home to a healthy consolidation of handy facilities including main bus routes, two shops, a post office, public house, school and petrol station. A major supermarket is a mile or so away as is Appley park, a wonderful tree-lined park leading down to its adjoining beach. The house is sensibly designed to meet the demands of modern living favouring a kitchen/diner and separate lounge configuration. There is a cloakroom at ground floor and upstairs there is a family bathroom plus an en suite shower room to the principal bedroom, there are three bedrooms in total. The outside space has been landscaped to keep maintenance to a minimum although some may wish to elaborate the appearance. An allocated parking space sits in front of the house and there is a large shared turning area for ease of access. The countryside views can be seen from all front facing windows and best enjoyed from the upper floor. Newer houses are generally much easier to maintain than older stock properties and certainly cheaper to run from an energy efficiency stand point, so if keeping control of outgoings is important to you then there is even more reason for you to consider this house as your next home.
