Wow! A gardener's paradise awaits...

A charming and beautifully presented attached cottage situated in a lovely position within the small village of Westleigh which lies just of the banks of the river Torridge enjoying far reaching views towards the estuary. The property is believed to date back over 300 years in parts with later additions and has been superbly restored recently after being part of a local estate for many years.

The house now provides superb accommodation including three excellent bedrooms including 1 en suite facility, plus further bathroom, A very large living room with fireplace and wood burning stove - open including a beautiful dining plus a totally new kitchen that opens with bi-folding doors to an amazing patio and the rest of the grounds. The property and the gardens have been sympathetically restored by its current owner whilst it still retains many period features including an inglenook fireplaces and exposed ceiling timbers.

The outside space is of particular note - and is real treat! It includes a beautiful stone patio, stunning lawns, well stocked borders, a large pond teeming with wildlife, raised beds and a large timber greenhouse (perfect for gardeners) -There is even a lawn for croquet!

Set within the picturesque village of Westleigh nestled between Bideford, Instow and the River Torridge. Due to the envious position of the cottage, it allows easy access to a renowned village pub, church and Tarka Trail. With the famous Tapeley Park being a short journey away, this Estate with expansive gardens of which are open to the public to explore. Bideford itself, famous as a port, offering a rich history and amenities such as banks, supermarkets, fuel stations, pubs and restaurants all on the edge of the River Torridge.
