Tucked away along a peaceful lane close to the village centre, shop, public house and open countryside, this charming detached home features beautifully landscaped gardens and a surprisingly spacious interior. Offered with no onward chain.

A charming canopy porch and front door open into a welcoming entrance hall, complete with exposed wooden floorboards, understairs storage, and stairs rising to the first floor. The beautifully proportioned 17ft dual-aspect sitting room enjoys plenty of natural light and features exposed wooden flooring, an electric fire with a wooden surround, and fitted dressers positioned either side of the chimney breast. The ground floor also offers a spacious double bedroom, a modern family bathroom opposite, and a versatile study that could equally serve as a fourth bedroom. Spanning the rear of the property is an attractive kitchen/dining room with a vaulted ceiling, tiled flooring, and a racing green oil-fired AGA. Additional appliances include a built-in oven and four-ring electric hob, while double doors open into a conservatory overlooking the delightful gardens. Completing the ground floor is a practical utility room with space for appliances and a stable door leading directly to the garden. Upstairs, the first floor provides a further family bathroom and two generous double bedrooms, both benefiting from fitted cupboards and Velux skylights.

Outside, a sweeping driveway leads up to the house from Coxhill Lane providing plenty of parking. There is a carport and side gates in to the attractive rear garden. The mature south facing garden enjoys an excellent amount of privacy, and features a shaped lawn, well stocked borders, a brick paved patio with an electric awning, and a potting shed. There is also a further side garden, also very private with a small pond, acers, roses and wisteria.
