This former village post office combines beautiful private gardens, a wealth of character, and a well-presented interior to create a unique and charming home.

Located in the heart of this popular village, this charming and individual family home is full of charm and period features. Originally formed from three cottages and a one time post office, the property has been thoughtfully reconfigured into one substantial and beautifully presented home with a flexible layout.

The accommodation includes a stunning 22ft vaulted kitchen with an oil fired AGA and a central island with granite worktop, a dual-aspect sitting room with a log burner, and a dining room with an exposed stone archway leading to a cosy snug/family room. Additional reception space includes a versatile study or fourth bedroom, along with a ground-floor shower room. Upstairs are three well-proportioned bedrooms and a stylish refitted family bathroom, with the principal bedroom benefiting from an en suite shower room and bespoke handmade oak wardrobes.

Outside, private and well-stocked gardens surround the property, offering a good amount of privacy. Five-bar gates lead to a detached garage and provide ample secure parking. An early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate this delightful village home.

Situation

There is a good community spirit within the village of Bulkington and a thriving family run public house/restaurant called 'The Well.' There is also a great children's playing field very close to the house, and a fine selection of local schooling in the area including Keevil, Seend, Lavington Secondary and Dauntsey's School all closeby with bus services. Surrounding area provides several miles of circular countryside walks

Devizes town centre lies some six miles east of Bulkington providing a wider range of amenities and a thriving weekly market. The major towns of Swindon, Salisbury, Bath, Chippenham and Marlborough are all within a 25 mile radius. Mainline railway services are available from Chippenham, Pewsey, Trowbridge, Melksham and Westbury providing links to Bristol and London .
