With fabulous countryside views to both the front and rear, and beautiful gardens bordering a tranquil stream, 'End Cottage' in Great Cheverell is a must view!

Dating back originally to the late 1800s, this now spacious home was extended in the 1970s and again in 2006 by the current owners to over 1930sqft in total. Internally, a good sized welcoming entrance hall opens into a dual aspect dining room with views over the garden and an exposed brick fireplace, with log burner. From here, one door leads into the 17ft dual aspect sitting room with its lovely Inglenook style fireplace and inset log burner. Barn style doors give access from the dining room to the breakfast area with exposed ceiling beams and brick walling. This is open to a country cottage style kitchen with fitted wall and floor cupboards, oak worktops and tiled flooring. A useful utility room including a large broom cupboard and downstairs cloakroom complete the ground floor layout. On the first floor, there are 4 double bedrooms in total complemented by a modern family bathroom. The principal bedroom is a great size and boasts far reaching views over the garden and countryside beyond (as do all bedrooms), ample fitted wardrobes and an en suite shower room. 3 of the 4 bedrooms have fitted cupboards/wardrobes.

Outside, 5 bar gates open on to a large gravelled driveway with parking for a good number of cars and a detached double garage with light, power and door to the rear (fully boarded full head height loft). The attractive gardens are a notable feature of this cottage, with a side kitchen garden housing enclosed box hedged vegetable patches and an extended patio sun terrace. The rear garden is mainly laid to lawn with colourful planted borders, established trees, a wood store and a bridge over the little stream. Beyond the garden there is lovely open countryside providing a rural tranquillity to just sit down and enjoy.
