📊 EPC Rating E

This is a delightful former lodge to Broadleas House set in nearly 1/4 an acre, and conveniently located with walking distance of the historic market place and the popular Hillworth Park.

This enchanting detached period home is believed to date back to Victorian times and enjoys a number of character features including a veranda with stone framing, ornate decorative fireplaces and a charming bread oven. The well laid out accommodation is flexible depending on the ratio of bedrooms to reception rooms required. From the covered veranda, you enter into a bay fronted sitting room with an inviting log burner set in a exposed brick surround. Wooden panelled doors lead off to a dining room with a former bread oven and useful understairs storage, and stairs up to the first floor. There is a small utility room and a dual aspect modern fitted kitchen which has a built-in oven, 4 ring gas hob and space for further appliances. Completing the ground floor are two more rooms that could be utilised as bedrooms or receptions alongside a contemporary family bathroom with a shower over the bath, tiled flooring and walls and heated towel rail/radiator. On the first floor there are two good sized double bedrooms overlooking the gardens.

Outside, a generous gravelled driveway provided plenty of off road parking alongside an old garage. The established and very private gardens surround the house with a secluded side patio sun terrace, level lawns, sheds and mature shrubs and trees. An early viewing is recommended to appreciate the position of this one-off home and its charming features.
