Situated in the heart of the ever-popular village of Potterne, this characterful and deceptively spacious three-bedroom semi-detached home offers a blend of charm, practicality and village living.

The property enjoys a central position, right next door to the well-known George & Dragon public house, a historic fifteenth century inn that sits at the heart of the village community. Potterne itself is highly regarded, offering a strong sense of community along with a village shop, church, school and excellent access to Devizes and surrounding countryside.

Internally, the accommodation is well-balanced and full of character, with generous living space arranged across two floors. The ground floor offers a comfortable living room, leading through to a separate dining room, ideal for both everyday use and entertaining. To the rear, a spacious kitchen/dining room provides a sociable hub of the home with ample worktop, storage space and also houses the multi-fuel stove.

Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned bedrooms, all served by a family bathroom.

The property has also benefitted from a new roof within the last year, offering peace of mind for prospective purchasers.

Externally, there is off-street parking to the front, while the rear garden is a particularly attractive feature. Thoughtfully arranged, it offers a patio seating area along with raised sections planted with mature shrubs, creating a private and established feel. At the far end, a useful shed/workshop provides excellent additional storage or hobby space.

A charming village home with plenty of character, well-suited to those looking for space, convenience and a strong community setting.
