Located in the heart of this thriving Wiltshire village that lies on the edge of the Pewsey Vale, this endearing home has 4 good bedrooms complemented by 3 reception rooms. An entrance hall with exposed wooden floorboards and ceiling beams leads off to a downstairs cloakroom and an impressive 23ft sitting room with a fine Inglenook open fireplace. Oak double doors from the sitting room open into a wonderfully light and airy garden room that features a large atrium skylight, bi folding doors to the garden, slate flooring and a contemporary 'Jotul' log burning stove. The beautiful handmade kitchen by local experts 'Cheverell Wood' has bespoke drawers and cupboards, granite worktops, a pantry cupboard, a Belfast sink, a Mercury Range cooker and hood, and an integrated dishwasher. A separate dining/breakfast room with tiled flooring and French doors completes the ground floor. On the first floor set off the characterful landing are four double bedrooms all with individual features. Three of the four bedrooms (including the principal dual aspect bedroom) have between them either fitted wardrobes and storage shelving, whilst the fourth bedroom features a Victorian fireplace. The family bathroom has a modern suite that includes both a bath and a corner shower.

Outside, there is secure gated driveway parking to the rear for 3 to 4 vehicles. Planning was previously granted (now lapsed but could be reinstated) for a garage to be erected alongside the conversion of the vaulted outbuilding (with light, power and the oil boiler) that adjoins the breakfast room. The south facing garden enjoys excellent privacy and has a large patio with raised borders, a small rose garden, a pond and steps up to a lawn with a greenhouse and apple and plum fruit trees.
