⌚ EPC Rating

The Old Rectory is an imposing, detached, Grade II Listed, Georgian house which retains many of its original features including sash windows, working shutters, impressive fireplaces and cornicing. The property occupies a generous plot which enjoys wonderful views to the rear over the town and countryside beyond.

The house offers vast accommodation (approximately 4000 square feet) over three floors comprising entrance vestibule, hall with steps down to a large cellar room which is an ideal space for a gym or cinema, large drawing room with open feature fireplace, sitting room with feature fireplace, dual aspect dining room, snug/family room, fabulous oak framed garden room with vaulted ceiling, wood burning stove and French doors opening onto the garden, kitchen/breakfast room with granite worktops and integrated appliances, pantry, utility room, lobby with cloakroom and study off, lean to, large landing with lantern roof light, principle bedroom with built in wardrobes, dressing room and en suite bathroom with free standing, clawfoot bath, four further good sized bedrooms, study/bedroom 6 and a bathroom with four piece suite.

To the rear of the property there is an attractive stone built, detached, coach house which is currently a garden bar/micro pub and offers the potential for a variety of uses.

The rear garden is a large and predominately lawned with a variety of seating areas, ornamental bushes and mature trees. The large trees and established boundaries provide the gardens with a great deal of privacy and seclusion.

A large driveway to the front and side of the house and double garage provide all the parking and more that a family would require.

Situation

The highly desirable Hardenhuish Lane offers excellent motor commuting to the major centres of Bath, Bristol, Swindon and London via the A4, A420 and the M4. Two of the town's highly reputable senior schools are within easy access together with a Morrisons supermarket. A more comprehensive range of amenities are to be found in the nearby town centre including mainline railway (London-Paddington), college and sports facilities.
