🏠 EPC Rating E

A spacious three semi-detached family home standing on a mature plot in the heart of this desirable village. The accommodation is arranged over two floors, comprising an entrance hallway, a spacious open plan kitchen/breakfast room and sitting room, both rooms featuring exposed ceiling beams. A door from the hallway opens into a dining room with a useful cloakroom and garden room. Upstairs, there are three well-proportioned double bedrooms and a family bathroom. Externally, the established garden extends to the rear and one side of the property, being predominantly laid to lawn and enclosed by an attractive drystone boundary wall. A driveway to the front approaches an attached garage with additional parking to the front and side.

SITUATION

Crudwell is a thriving village with a strong community spirit, situated just three miles north from the historic town of Malmesbury and seven miles from the Cotswold market town of Cirencester. Local amenities include two public houses, one being the highly regarded Potting Shed, The Rectory, a country house hotel, a well regarded primary school and catchment for the award winning Malmesbury Secondary School. There is a parish church and a Post Office within the Wheatsheaf pub. Access to junction seventeen of the M4 provides road and travel links to London, Bath and Bristol. Regular bus services are available to and from Malmesbury. An intercity railway link to London Paddington is available from Kemble, only four miles away, arriving in just over an hour.
