Furze Court block D is a fine brick built contemporary property perfectly located on Fareham's prestigious Wickham road. The property has recently undergone thorough development to form 10 prestigious apartments with either one or two bedrooms.

The development lies within close proximity to Fareham town centre and transport links on to the M27. With communal gardens, allocated parking and a beautiful finish, these premium apartments will make the perfect let for professionals and families alike

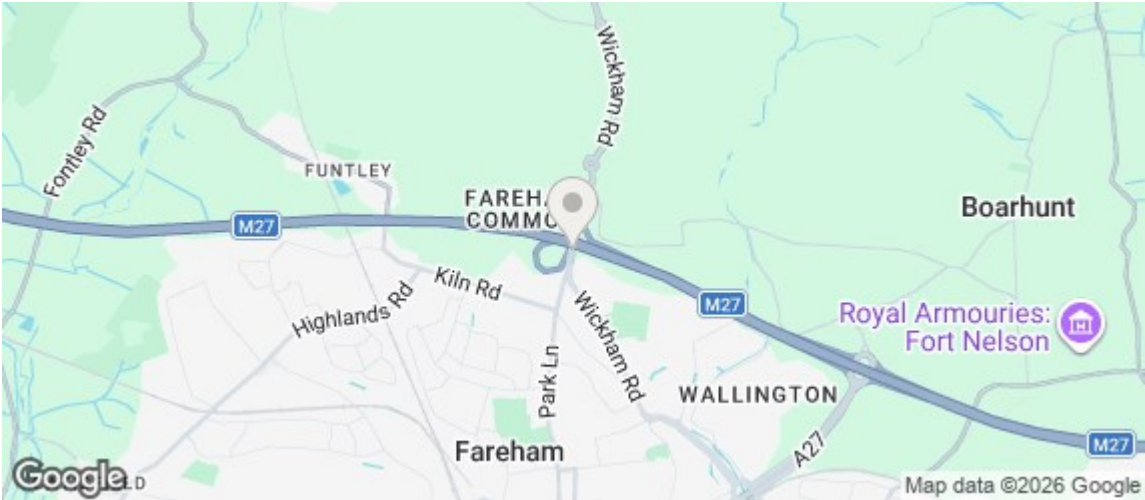

This flat in particular is a fantastic size. The property consists of two spacious double bedrooms, with the master benefitting from its own modern ensuite.

The open plan kitchen/lounge/diner is flooded with natural light and is the ideal space to entertain.

Completing the property is the modern fitted three piece bathroom, the ideal space to relax and unwind

We strongly recommend booking a viewing to avoid disappointment
