White Lodge is a distinguished Grade II listed home forming the southern section of an elegant Regency house built circa 1834. From the moment you enter, the impressive scale and refinement of the property are unmistakable. The entrance hall immediately establishes the character of the home, its tall decorative ceiling, generous proportions and original detailing creating a remarkable sense of arrival. Practical touches have been carefully integrated, with extensive built-in storage. The kitchen also benefits from a full electric oven and hob as well as a gas range and pantry.

All ground floor rooms are exceptionally spacious, enhanced by tall ceilings, ornate plasterwork and large sash bay windows that fill the rooms with light. The sitting room enjoys a working fireplace with its ornamental surround, while the adjoining dining room offers an equally impressive and atmospheric setting.

The first floor continues to reflect the home's generous proportions and timeless elegance. The principal bedroom features twin sash windows with internal shutters and enjoys far-reaching views across the Solent towards the Isle of Wight. It is complemented by an ensuite bathroom and fitted wardrobes and storage. The second bedroom mirrors its scale and charm, also offering outstanding coastal views through two sash windows with shutters. Bedrooms three and four provide further highly usable accommodation, ideal for family, guests or home working, and are served by a well-presented family bathroom.

Stairs from the entrance hall lead down to the semi-basement level, a particularly versatile part of the home offering multiple functional spaces rarely found in properties of this style.

SOLICITORS

Choosing the right conveyancing solicitor is extremely important to ensure that you obtain an effective yet cost-efficient solution. The lure of supposedly cheaper on-line "conveyancing warehouse" style services can be very difficult to ignore but this is a route fraught with problems that we strongly urge you to avoid. A local, established and experienced conveyancer will safeguard your interests and get the job done in a timely manner. Bernards can recommend several local firms of solicitors who have the necessary local knowledge and will provide a personable service. Please ask a member of our sales team for further details.

ANTI MONEY LAUNDERING

Bernards Estate agents have a legal obligation to complete anti-money laundering checks. The AML check should be completed in branch. Please call the office to book an AML check if you would like to make an offer on this property. Please note the AML check includes taking a copy of the two forms of identification for each purchaser. A proof of address and proof of name document is required. Please note we cannot put forward an offer without the AML check being completed
