A standout feature is its exceptional energy efficiency. The property has achieved an EPC A rating, held by only a small proportion of homes on Hayling Island. It combines the character and flexibility of an established detached home with the energy credentials of a much newer property.

Modern upgrades include 12 solar panels, battery storage with an active export guarantee, EV charging point, full rewiring and a Vaillant condensing boiler, helping provide comfortable living with energy efficiency and future running costs in mind.

At the heart of the home is the impressive 18'11" x 16'3" living room, featuring a contemporary log-burning stove. The living space flows into the modern fitted kitchen, conservatory and rear garden, creating a sociable layout with a strong connection between indoors and out.

The ground floor also includes a double bedroom, ideal as a guest room, home office or additional reception room, plus a shower room, utility area, storage and side access. Upstairs are two further double bedrooms and a second shower room, offering flexible accommodation for families, guests or home working.

Outside, there is generous off-road parking for multiple vehicles, an EV charging point and garage access via an electric roller door. The private rear garden features lawn and patio areas, ideal for outdoor dining and relaxation.

Combining three double bedrooms, two shower rooms, garage, extensive parking and outstanding EPC A energy efficiency, this is a rare detached coastal home just minutes from the beach.

Hayling Island offers sailing, water sports, cycling and miles of shoreline, while local amenities and connections to Havant and the wider Hampshire area remain within easy reach.

Solicitor Quotes

Choosing the right conveyancing solicitor is extremely important to ensure that you obtain an effective yet cost-efficient solution. The lure of supposedly cheaper on-line "conveyancing warehouse" style services can be very difficult to ignore but this is a route fraught with problems that we strongly urge you to avoid. A local, established and experienced conveyancer will safeguard your interests and get the job done in a timely manner. Bernards can recommend several local firms of solicitors who have the necessary local knowledge and will provide a personable service. Please ask a member of our sales team for further details.
