South Road, Swanage, Dorset BH19 2QR

SITUATION:

Within a residential cul-de-sac on the south-western slopes of Swanage approximately half a mile from the main town centre amenities, beach and sea front. The rooms at the rear of the property and good-sized rear garden all have a southerly aspect.

DESCRIPTION:

A detached house built, we believe, in the 1930's of brick and part rendered elevations under a clay tile roof. Double-glazed windows have been installed during the current owners occupation along with a first floor wet room. The loft space is of a good size with possible potential to convert, subject to obtaining the necessary approvals.
