It is extremely rare that a property comes to the market that makes you say 'wow' at every turn. This beautiful 16th century grade II listed property does just that. Situated on a plot just under an acre, you are surrounded by wildlife with a rolling garden and lake.

The house itself has been carefully maintained by the previous owners and is now ready for a new family. Space is one one thing this home is certainly not short of with over 2,200 sq ft of living space. Every room is filled with beams, charm and character, enabling you to see how the house has changed and developed over the years.

As you enter the home, you are greeted by a large and welcoming dining room packed with features, which gives you a taste of what is to come. Leading through to the living room, you have a large Inglenook fireplace dating back to 1629 and what remains of the original staircase. With five bedrooms and two bathrooms, everyone has the space to retreat for some peace and quiet and take in the views.

When you venture outside, the charm and space continues. With a beautiful original courtyard garden, workshop/barn, double garage, lake, mature trees and plants, this truly is somewhere you can get lost in.

The added bonus with this property is that you also have a separate paddock approx 1 acre (tbv) with its own entrance and stables. Perfect if you wanted to add some animals to the family or become more self sufficient with chickens or growing your own vegetables.

The surrounding village of Horsmonden is known for its stunning countryside views and a strong sense of community. Residents can enjoy local amenities, including shops, schools, and recreational facilities, all within a short distance. The property is also well-connected to the nearby town of Paddock Wood, boasting an array of shops, cafe's and mainline train station.
