Jeffrey ross are pleased to offer for sale this beautifully renovated and extended period house, in the heart of Roath. Thoughtfully restored and improved by the current owners, there is a tasteful blend of old and new, with features such as under floor heating and original tiled and wood floors. The accommodation spans over 100ft2 and three floors. Briefly comprising: entrance hall, cosy front lounge, stunning open plan kitchen diner/ living space, and bathroom to ground floor. Upstairs there are three good size bedrooms on the first floor, and another bedroom and shower room on the second floor. Outside is a pretty landscaped garden with patio, lawn and decked area, ideal for families and entertaining. Located conveniently with local shops and parks at the end of the road, as well as popular schools, making this a super location for couples and families.
