Ael y Bryn

RUDRY

A truly remarkable place that has been brilliantly put together by the current owner. The attention to detail, layout and out door living areas make this a very special home indeed. The location offers great access to the M4 and only 10 minutes from Lisvane.

This really does feel like our very own wellness retreat in the middle of the countryside, the direct access to Rudry common was brilliant during lock down and we will really miss living here. Our aim was to create versatile living space as well as make the home practical. The master bedroom balcony, vegetable patch and recent outdoor sauna and plunge barrell are just some of our highlights.
