We have loved living here, particularly because of its unique position next to the wildlife corridor, which gives the property a sense of privacy and space. With no immediate feeling of being overlooked and views of the surrounding greenery, it often feels as though the house is set apart from the rest of the development. The street itself is quiet with very little passing traffic, creating a peaceful environment that's ideal for both families and professionals. We've also enjoyed all the benefits of living in a modern new-build home, including energy efficiency, low maintenance, and contemporary living spaces.
