Nicely presented three bedroom (with converted garage) family home in the beautiful area of St Nicholas. This large home consists of, large living room, separate kitchen with a good-sized storage area. The downstairs further benefits from a large and light conservatory leading out the garden. There is two storage areas within the conservatory one of which has a W/C. The, once, garage has now been converted into another reception room but could also be used as a bedroom. The staircase has new carpets, leading to the upstairs. Three large double bedrooms are upstairs with new flooring. Finally, the main bathroom which is equipped with a bathtub and a shower over head, toilet and wash-hand basin. The upstairs also has a good amount of storage completing this great family home.

Please note, the furniture in the photos have been staged using AI software, the property will be offered unfurnished.
