Welcome to this charming home on Brooklands Terrace, set in the sought-after Culverhouse Cross area of Cardiff. Offering three generously sized bedrooms, this property is perfect for families or anyone in need of extra space. It also features two comfortable reception rooms, ideal for relaxing or entertaining.

The house is well maintained and ready to move into, with two modern bathrooms and a separate WC that make day-to-day living easy and convenient for everyone in the household.

A standout feature is the large private driveway & garage, providing plenty of off-road parking. There's also an electric vehicle charging point, a great addition for environmentally conscious buyers.

Conveniently located close to a range of local amenities, including shops, schools, and parks, the property offers the perfect balance of suburban peace and easy access to the city.

Overall, this delightful Brooklands Terrace home presents an excellent opportunity to join a vibrant community, combining space, comfort, and convenience in one appealing package.
