We bought the house as was quietly located in a great spot with green open spaces and have particularly enjoyed the large south facing garden where we've had perfect family BBQ's and parties.

It's been great being such a short walk away from the beach and have enjoyed many a pleasant walk along the coastline, we can also walk through to the One Stop which is quicker than driving - very handy. Our neighbours very soon became great friends and we will be sad to leave but a new chapter beckons.
