A much improved and extended detached 3/4 bedrooms house in a quiet cul-de-sac location just minutes from the cliff top walk, Cosmeston lakes and country park as well as the lovely old railway walk which will take you to Penarth town centre. The current owners have transformed the property over the last 16 years to create a stunning living environment which comprises of well presented accommodation of: Entrance porch, hallway, dining room, study (4th bedroom) fitted kitchen/breakfast room, utility room, W.C, stunning living room with vaulted ceiling, feature wood burner and bi-fold doors opening to the large rear garden. To the first floor there is a very large principal bedroom (formally 2 bedrooms) with fitted wardrobes, there are 2 further double bedrooms and a stylish fully tiled shower room. Set on a good size plot set away from the road with ample parking on the driveway and a South facing enclosed rear garden. Gas central heating and double glazing. Internal viewing strongly recommended to appreciate the accommodation on offer.
